A very sought after and desirable location, this select development of true bungalows is set in an extremely pleasant and well presented hamlet within a great community, with residents being over 55's. The semi detached bungalow is in great order and offers two generous bedrooms, a very spacious and bright lounge diner, a modern well equipped fitted kitchen with Neff gas hob, Neff electric double oven and an integrated washer dryer. There is a contemporary shower room, gas central heating and uPVC double glazing, there are well kept communal garden areas as well as a rear paved patio, perfect for potted plants. To the front is driveway parking for several vehicles. There is a recently renovated community centre which offers a great selection of subsidised meals, residents gatherings and even accommodation for family members wishing to stay over. The property tenure is freehold.

Close to local bus routes and Sainsburys local is within walking distance. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate the size, presentation and positioning of this lovely home and the property is offered with No Chain Delay.
