A most unique and imposing family home having been cleverly extended to create a breathtaking property. Although initial looks can be deceiving, as this is not the standard Redrow Palmerston, it may appear to be. This amazing property offers so much, both in it's size and layout which provides great versatility. There are five bedrooms, two en suite, main family bathroom, four reception rooms and a fabulous kitchen and utility room. There is lots of driveway parking and a garage. The plot is fabulous and wraps around the rear of the property to provide several seating areas, sun terraces and patio areas, however, the garden's jewel in the crown is the exceptional garden kitchen with all the accoutrements of an indoor kitchen with the added benefit of a top quality pizza oven. Currently the decadent master suite overlooks and accesses the amazing garden with it's own dressing room and serviced by en suite. This part of the property could quite easily be utilised as a self contained annex, as sits discretely to one side of this amazing home. Close to great road links and easy motorway connectivity, handy local schools and services, as well as local supermarkets. Viewing is essential to fully appreciate the size, layout, setting and sheer luxury of this beautiful home.
