UNEXPECTEDLY BACK TO THE MARKET!
Well-presented and found on a quiet and family-friendly estate, this spacious detached home offers superb accommodation plus a large yet private rear garden and boasts an additional reception room on the ground floor following a conversion of the original garage which could also double as an extra bedroom if required.
Built in 2013 by Bellway Homes to their Lansdowne specification, this home also benefits from the added advantage of having the Freehold purchased by the current owners and is sure to be popular, so early viewing comes highly recommended!
