Campion House

An attractive period building, offering flexible office space in a convenient town centre location.

As a former Grade II listed carpet warehouse and mill, Campion House offers a high quality office environment in a central location, ideally suited to local and national businesses alike.

Recently refurbished and fully DDA compliant, the three storey period building comprises a range of flexible office suites providing space from 500 – 2,300 sq ft.

Elgar House

Situated in the heart of Kidderminster, Elgar House provides high quality office space in a prime location.

As one of the few major office buildings of its size within the Worcestershire area, the iconic Art Deco and part Victorian style property offers modern, high specification office accommodation, whilst incorporating much of the building's original period character.

Set over four storeys and fully DDA compliant, the locally listed property offers the flexibility of large floor plates, providing space available from 500 – 9,485 sq ft.

Amenities

Situated on Green Street, Elgar House and Campion House benefit from a town centre location, providing a wealth of car parks, public transport links and shopping facilities, including the adjacent Morrisons foodstore and B&Q Warehouse.

Completed in 2003, the innovative 'Weaver's Wharf' retail scheme offers 23 high street stores, a 24 hour Tesco and local eateries including Italian coffee bar, Caffè Nero and 50's-style restaurant chain, Frankie & Bennys.

The regeneration of the town centre has included developments to Kidderminster College, resulting in a modern learning environment that is due to receive a further £1.1 million worth of investment.

Location

Situated in the heart of Kidderminster, Elgar House and Champion House benefit from an excellent strategic location, whilst on the outskirts of one of the West Midlands most thriving conurbations.

Close to the M5, M6 and M42, the high quality office development offers strong links to the national motorway network, whilst Birmingham City Centre and Airport are easily accessible, less than 40 minutes away by rail. The town's bus terminus at Weaver's Wharf, which offers direct bus links to Worcester, Halesowen, Bewdley, Stourport and Bromsgrove, is also within a 5 minute walk.

Following a £50 million regeneration programme in recent years and significant investment in developing the region's retailing and business centre, Kidderminster offers an attractive base for both local and national companies, providing a pool of high quality employees and excellent local amenities.
