DESCRIPTION

Beacon Hill is a detached family home located in a secluded 3.68 acre (1.49 hectare) plot at the eastern boundary of Low Pittington. The property boasts flexible living accommodation and benefits from converted stables making a fantastic home office separate from the main accommodation.

The ground floor comprises an entrance hallway with parquet flooring and doors radiating to the living accommodation. The kitchen is fitted with a range of units with granite worktops, with the wall units having downlighting bringing additional warmth to the room. There is an Everhot range with two ovens and hot plate on top with extractor fan over. The stainless-steel kitchen sink is set within the work top with matching stainless-steel mixer tap. The kitchen has a grey tiled floor and space for dining furniture.

From the kitchen double doors open to the family room with wooden parquet flooring and an outlook to the front garden.

The living room is a spacious room with open fire set within a tiled fireplace with painted wooden surround. The room boasts a large picture window to the garden which floods the room with natural light French doors open from the living room to the south facing sunroom, with wooden parquet flooring and windows to three sides with panoramic views over the garden.

The utility room is fitted with base units with a laminate worktop and space and plumbing for a washing machine and tumble dryer. The boiler is housed in the utility room also and two doors provide access to the double garage and to the garden.

From the rear porch there is a ground floor cloakroom with WC with wash hand basin and a door from the rear porch to the kitchen.

The first floor is set within the eaves of the property. The master bedroom is a generous double bedroom with fitted wardrobes to one wall and a large storage cupboard. The bedroom also benefits from an en suite shower room tiled walls and floor an electric shower, WC and wash hand basin set within a vanity unit.

The second bedroom is another good-sized double bedroom with fitted wardrobes and window looking out over the pathway towards the fields. The third bedroom is full of character with a pitched ceiling and views to three sides of the property over the garden and surrounding countryside. The room has a built-in bookcase and shelves and has further eaves storage space.

The fourth single bedroom has stained floorboard flooring and would work well as a home office space. The room is naturally light with having two large windows and a door to the balcony overlooking the garden.

The double garage has power and light and two electric roller doors. There is an electric car charging port in the garage too.

The stables have been sympathetically converted into a home office with heating and views over the block paved courtyard. There is also a small utility space with sink and a separate WC with useful overhead storage. At the end of the stables is a useful storage shed.

The garden has been well looked after with mature shrub and tree borders, a pond with water feature and a patio area perfect for enjoying afternoon sun.

THE LAND

The property has the benefit of two grass paddocks which extend to approximately 3.26 acres (1.32 hectares) suitable for grazing and having a mainly post and wire fence boundary.
