LOCATION

Weather Hill House lies on the outskirts of Brancepeth, a picturesque village boasting a castle dating back to the Saxon period, village church and village hall, and a 18 hole golf course.

For a wider range of amenities Durham City is approximately 5 minutes away. For the commuter, the A1(M) is less than 10 miles away with Durham having an east coast main line train station with direct links to Edinburgh and London. There are international airports at Teesside and Newcastle.

DESCRIPTION

Weather Hill House is accessed from Wolsingham Road and down a track through Weather Hill Wood and Caliph's Wood. The property is south facing and has an elevated position lying next to Weather Hill Wood. It comprises two reception rooms to the front elevation with a kitchen and bathroom lying to the rear, whilst to the first floor there are three good-sized bedrooms with eaves storage space on the landing. The property has a south facing garden. The property and outside space do require renovation and the adjoining barns, subject to the necessary planning consents, would lend themselves to residential conversion creating a quaint residential complex on the edge of Weather Hill Wood.

The property extends to 9.84 acres (3.98 hectares) comprising 5.21 acres (2.11 hectares) of mature woodland and 3.92 acres (1.58 hectares) of grassland and has a public right of way that leads to the property via the track through the woods and then runs diagonally over the field parcel to the front of the property and is indicated on the enclosed plan.
