LOCATION

Burnopfield is a village located to the south west of Newcastle. The village offers a range of local amenities and is well located for the commuter, with the A1(M) being approximately 5 miles away and both Newcastle and Durham have east coast main line train stations with direct links to Edinburgh and London. There are international airports at Newcastle and Teesside.

DESCRIPTION

The land comprises three field parcels to the north of Busty Bank road extending to 11.43 acres (3.07 hectares) which gently undulates and is classed as Grade 3 land, two of these field parcels do have a small area of woodland included. On the enclosed plan there are two areas highlighted in orange which are currently unregistered but have been used as part of the field parcels for many years. An overhead electricity cable and pylon runs through this block of grassland.

SERVICES

Two field parcels have a natural water supply.

WAYLEAVES, EASEMENTS AND RIGHTS OF WAY

The property is sold subject to all rights including rights of way, whether public or private, rights of light, support, drainage, water and electricity and other rights, obligations and easements and quasi easements and restrictive covenants and all existing and proposed wayleaves for masts, pylons, stays, cables, drains and water, gas and other pipes, whether or not constituted in the title deeds or referred to in these particulars.

The purchaser will be held to have satisfied themselves as to the nature of such wayleaves, easements or rights of way.
