SELLER'S SECRET

The key word for me, regarding this property is comfort. It's been so comfortable living here. The neighbours are great and all look out for one another and being a cul-de-sac there's no through traffic.

Why we like it....

We would consider, along with many local people, this location to be one of Wellingborough's most sought-after areas. This executive looking street, where the residents take pride in their properties, will be a desirable home for the new owners.
