SELLER'S SECRET

In all the time we have lived here the neighbours have been very accommodating when it comes the parking. We have lived here for about 22 years and the street really does have that good old fashioned community spirit feel.

Why we like it....

You could walk past this street a hundred times and not realise its there. This beautiful little street, (which is a no through road) really exudes character in the heart of Wellingborough's town centre.
