Bonnie Braes

Halliday Homes Collection are thrilled to present to the market 'Bonnie Braes', an outstanding, detached family villa which is set within a picturesque location, on the outskirts of Thornhill. Sitting amongst well-manicured garden grounds and offering undisturbed views of the open countryside, this home will be sure to impress, and early viewing is advised.

The internal accommodation comprises: welcoming reception hall, spacious lounge, sitting room, breakfasting kitchen, dining room, office and bathroom. Accessed off the upper landing there are four very large bedrooms, all with en-suite facilities, there is also a good sized laundry cupboard. Warmth is provided by oil central heating and the property is fully double glazed.

Externally to the front there is a large gravel driveway, with flower bed turning circle for ample off-street parking. The property sits meticulously maintained, private, wraparound south facing gardens, with a variety of seating areas to ensure you catch the sun all day. There is a good sized area of lawn, a slabbed patio with hot tub, sheltered gazebo with heating, an outside gym/store with light and power, woodstore, greenhouse, external water and power points. It is worth noting that water waste is via a private septic tank.
