Offers Over
Bells Lane, Glemsford

A substantial partially Grade II listed four bedroom semi-detached cottage peacefully positioned on a generous plot of just over 0.33 of an acre in the quaint and well regarded village of Glemsford. This property offers over 3000 square feet of accommodation space and makes use of a self contained annexe and detached double car port.

Entry is gained to the porch leading through to the reception hall with a cosy dual facing log burner with two studies either side of the hall. The reception hall provides direct access to the sitting room, a bright and airy space thanks to the dual aspect windows. The kitchen is traditional in style offering a variety of wooden units with stone effect counter tops, a range of integrated appliances including twin ovens, two fridges and ceramic hob. Neighbouring the kitchen is the dining room/snug, a versatile space that the current owners make use of as a second living room offering a feature stove and sliding doors providing access to the garden. The utility room provides further work surface space and offers room for white goods and enjoys a stainless steel inset sink. This leads on through to the sun room, a bright space that could also make use a games room. The annexe comprises entrance room, kitchenette, bathroom with three piece suite and bedroom. This versatile space would make for the perfect Airbnb or accommodation for elderly relatives.

To the first floor are four double bedrooms, the master and second bedrooms offer en suite facilities whilst bedrooms three and four are both generous in size providing built in storage space. The family bathroom is traditional in style offering a bath tub, wash hand basin and low level WC.

To the rear of the property is a patio area that enjoys views of the garden, that is mainly laid to lawn with an array of mature shrubs and trees. There is also a water feature that forms a number of ornamental ponds. Externally this residence also offers a detached, double car port and ample parking.
