Move Inn is thrilled to present this stunning two-bedroom terraced house to the market.

This modern home features an inviting entrance hall, a comfortable lounge, and an extended kitchen/diner illuminated by skylights, allowing ample natural light to permeate the space. The kitchen comes equipped with integrated appliances, while patio doors lead to a secure rear garden of generous size, perfect for both small and larger families to enjoy, with the added convenience of rear access. There's even potential for further extension, subject to obtaining the necessary planning permissions.

Throughout the property, a bright and neutral color scheme caters to all tastes, complemented by ample storage space.

Upstairs, two spacious double bedrooms await, alongside a stylish shower room. Outside, a spacious driveway provides parking.

Situated in a highly sought-after location, with excellent school catchment areas, transportation links, and local amenities, this property offers both a comfortable lifestyle and investment potential. Whether you're seeking your first family home or an investment opportunity, this property is certainly worth a viewing!
