Surrounding Area

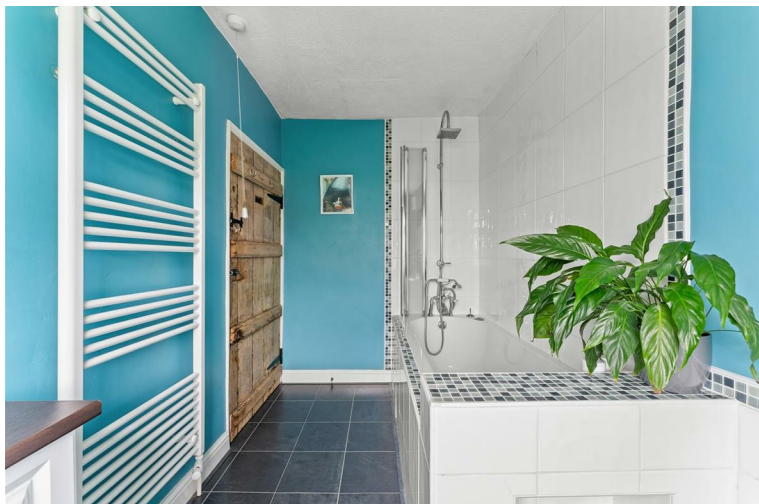

Nestled in the heart of the Cheshire countryside, Moulton is a picturesque village that perfectly blends rural charm with everyday convenience. With a welcoming community spirit, local pubs, scenic walks, and a thriving village hall, Moulton offers an idyllic setting for families and professionals alike. Despite its peaceful setting, the village boasts excellent travel connections — just a short drive from Northwich town centre and within easy reach of major routes like the A556 and M6, making commuting to Manchester, Chester, or Liverpool a breeze. For those relying on public transport, nearby train stations such as Northwich and Hartford offer regular services to key destinations. Moulton is also well-served by reputable schools, including Moulton School and nearby secondary options like The County High School Leftwich and Sir John Deane's Sixth Form College, all contributing to the village's appeal as a wonderful place to put down roots.
