Discover a stunning modern bungalow nestled on School Lane in Newbold Coleorton. This remarkable property showcases a sleek and contemporary design, with an emphasis on bringing in an abundance of natural light. The interior is bathed in sunlight, thanks to expansive windows that offer captivating views of the picturesque local countryside. This stunning bungalow seamlessly blends modern aesthetics with the tranquillity of its natural surroundings, making it a true masterpiece of architectural innovation.

Upon entering through the large glass door you are greeted with a wonderful light hallway that seamlessly opens up into a social kitchen area with a shaded open courtyard off the other side. The kitchen features a range of integrated appliances that are stylishly hidden behind stainless steel units and benefits from a double oven, fridge/freezer, dishwasher, hob, extractor fan and Quooker Tape and Cube, as well as allowing access to a shower room. There is a separate utility room with an integral washing machine.

Towards the front of the property there is the principle bedroom adjacent to a four piece bathroom consisting of a free standing bath, shower, WC and wash basin and there is a dressing room with fitted wardrobes that could be potentially used as a fourth bedroom. Towards the rear there are two further well proportioned double bedrooms and an L-shaped lounge diner that wraps around the property and enjoys stunning views over the local countryside.

The property is approached via electronically controlled gates with voice intercom system and allows access to a generous driveway with a detached garage. Towards the rear of the property there is a garden with a patio that runs the full width of the property, lawn, mature shrubs and fenced boundaries.
