Moira is a charming village located in the South Derbyshire district of England, nestled in the heart of the National Forest. Known for its picturesque landscapes and rich history, Moira offers a unique blend of rural tranquillity and modern conveniences.

One of the standout features of Moira is its natural beauty. The village is surrounded by lush green countryside, making it a haven for nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts. The presence of the nearby National Forest further enhances its appeal, providing opportunities for hiking, cycling, and wildlife watching.

Moira is also steeped in history, with several historic landmarks and heritage sites. The Moira Furnace Museum and Country Park, a preserved 19th-century iron-making furnace, offers a fascinating glimpse into the area's industrial past. Visitors can explore the museum, take scenic walks along the nearby canal, or simply enjoy a leisurely picnic in the park.

Despite its tranquil ambiance, Moira is well-connected to larger towns and cities. The nearby town of Swadlincote provides shopping, dining, and entertainment options, while Burton upon Trent and Ashby-de-la-Zouch are within easy reach.

In Moira, residents can enjoy a close-knit community, excellent local schools, and a relaxed pace of life. It's a place where modern living harmoniously coexists with the beauty of the countryside, making it an ideal location for those seeking a peaceful and picturesque setting to call home.
