Welcome to Jacksons Warehouse, an extraordinary conversion development nestled in the vibrant Northern Quarter. Originally constructed in 1836 as the renowned Rochdale Canal Warehouse, this historic gem has undergone a remarkable transformation, earning its well-deserved Grade II listed status in 1974. In 2003, the building was tastefully converted into a range of residential accommodation and self-contained commercial space at ground level.

Located with the Northern Quarter of the city centre Jackson Warehouse offers an array of independent restaurants, bars and boutiques, alongside workspaces, studios and residential accommodation right on your doorstep.
