A fine detached Victorian former vicarage, set in gardens of just under acre in the thriving Somerset village of Mark. This well-presented home has been lovingly refurbished by the present owners to an exceptionally high standard. The accommodation in the main house includes a drawing room, dining room, study, kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, cloakroom and conservatory on the ground floor and upstairs there are five double bedrooms including the master and guest room with en suite bathroom and a further family shower room. An adjoining cottage, formerly the stable block, was converted to accommodation in the 1970s and can be locked separately from the main house. The accommodation here has been recently refurbished and comprises a sitting room, kitchen/diner, two double bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside there is a double garage with spacious games room above, another stone outbuilding and woodshed in the garden.
