Sitting in the quiet corner of Leverstock Green with stunning countryside surroundings, Mulburries are proud to welcome this gem of a house onto the market.

Set within a development of less than 10 years in age, these stunning properties have obvious kerb appeal and unlike many other developments, the houses all showcase their own personalities, which is what makes them so appealing.

This home extenuates everything great about a modern home, offering a large reception space and a kitchen/diner large enough for entertainment. Also offering a separate utility space and spacious bedrooms, with stunning decor throughout, this house is very much in trend, versatile and offers outside space to the rear without being too sizeable to manage. The Car port to the side offers covered off street parking and street parking for guests is aplenty.
