CHRISTOPHER'S
SOUTH HAMS

Christopher's are thrilled to present this enchanting, detached bungalow sitting high above Ivybridge, sheltered within its own land and peaceful setting. Commanding dramatic panoramic views across town and moorland, High Copse is a truly beautiful and secluded home that blends into its landscape, yet is within easy walking distance to the town.

This stunning home has been extensively renovated to an extremely high standard and is cleverly designed to separate the bedrooms from the living areas in their own wing. Offering 3 double bedrooms all with built-in wardrobes, each room delights in views across town or surrounding gardens. One bedroom benefits from an ensuite shower room and there is a further, separate, luxurious family shower room as well. A well-appointed boot room/utility bursting with storage, completes this part of the bungalow.

From the other side of the entrance hall, is the impressive semi-open plan living space. A centrally positioned, glazed music room/study immediately welcomes you and lends itself to a variety of uses as it leads into the expansive dining area. The superb kitchen/breakfast room attracts an abundance of natural light dancing in from its large sky-lights as well as the dining room's double doors opening onto the rear garden patio.

The sitting room also absorbs the all-encompassing scenery with its large picture, bay window and cosy deep set window seats. The distinctive fireplace with exposed brick housing a log burner is the focal point in this room to enjoy, whatever the weather.

With its wholly immaculate presentation, there is a great feeling of love, care and attention throughout this entire home.

Outside, an electrically gated drive invites you to the bungalow's first of two, large parking areas, where previously there had been a garage and remains plenty of space to have one re-erected (subject to relevant consents). The driveway then winds up your own private hill to a further parking and turning area with space for several vehicles.

High Copse is engulfed by mature landscaped gardens – a perfect place to immerse in the sounds of nature and while away the hours in the most tranquil of settings (there is further land available by separate negotiation). This intensely picturesque home is utterly unique and Christopher's South Hams cannot wait to show it off.
