

15 Gospatrick Road, London, N17 7EH

A well-maintained and spacious three-bedroom end-of-terrace house with a conservatory and an impressively large garden—so big you would not believe you are in Zone 3.

Located on Gospatrick Road, N17, this home sits within the peaceful and characterful Tower Gardens Conservation Area, known for its leafy streets, period charm, and close-knit community. Green spaces abound, with Lordship Recreation Ground and Downhills Park just a short stroll away.

All three bedrooms feature solid wood floors and come part furnished. The bathroom and separate WC are thoughtfully designed, and the main bathroom includes a Jacuzzi bath. The large double reception room offers a warm and inviting space, complete with built-in bookcases.

The kitchen, fitted with quality appliances, opens onto a paved patio that leads into a stunning, oversized garden—a real sanctuary for nature lovers, with visits from birds, squirrels, and the occasional fox or cat. The garden also features a shed and comes with gardening tools.
