About the property

A charming first floor apartment nestled in a prime central location close to many amenities including Brighton mainline station, the popular Seven Dials shopping thoroughfare and the pretty St Ann's Well Gardens.

As you step into this cosy abode, you're greeted by a warm and inviting atmosphere which is beautifully presented throughout. The living room offers a comfortable retreat with space for a dining table and is complete with high ceilings, original cornicing, feature fireplace, exposed brick work wall and large sash windows.

There is a modern fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, fully tiled bathroom and a good size double bedroom with plush carpeting underfoot and generous fitted wardrobes.

The property further benefits from stunning rooftop views towards The Downs and is sold with a long lease.
