Description

The subject property is a two-storey mid-terrace building of stone construction under a pitched flagstone covered roof. The ground floor is arranged as a pharmacy shop with a small examination room and toilet at the rear.

The first floor is accessed via steps at the rear off Central Street and comprises two rooms, brew area and toilet.

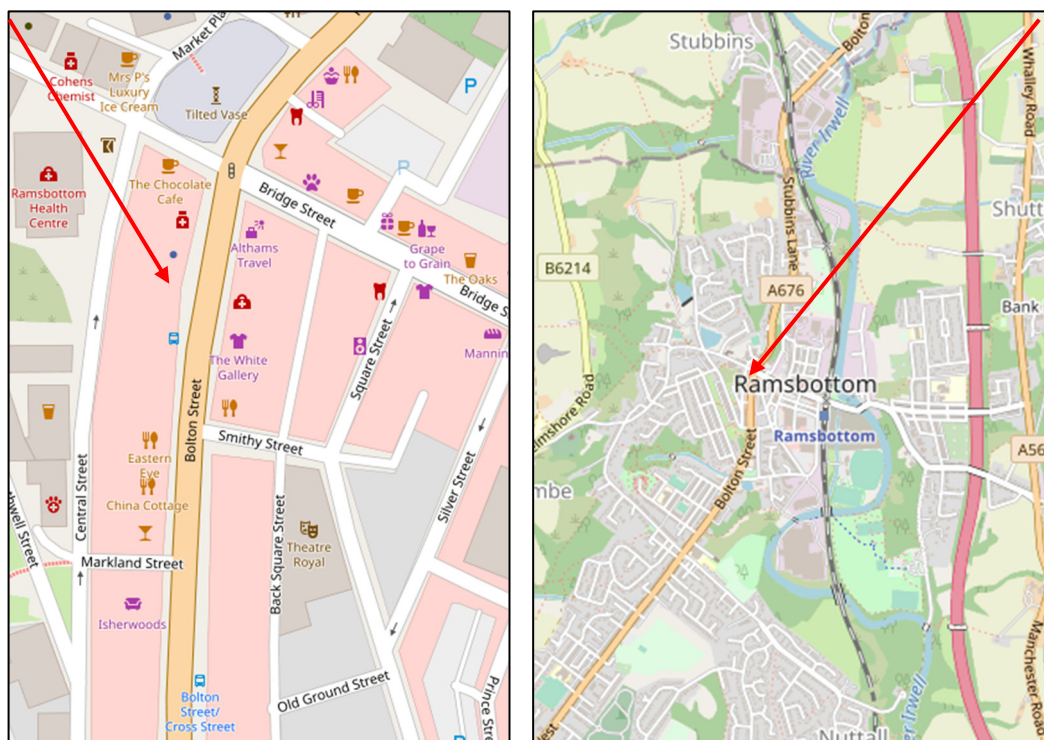

There are two parking spaces behind the property.

Location

The property occupies a prominent position within a parade of shops on Bolton Street, Bury. Ramsbottom is a small market town with a population of approximately 20,000 inhabitants situated four miles north of Bury, some 13 miles from the City Centre. It is served by the A676 and A58 roads, together with the M66 motorway which connects with the M62 at Whitefield and the M65 west of Burnley.

The town has a small industrial base and over the last 30 years or so has developed as a dormitory town for commuters into Bury, Bolton and Manchester. The East Lancs Railway running through Ramsbottom between Bury and Rawtenstall has assisted in developing a small tourist trade. There are numerous small shops in the town centre, together with larger supermarkets.

The property occupies a prominent position in the town centre near the junction of Bolton Street (A676) and Bridge Street.
