STEPHENSON BROWNE

Stephenson Browne are absolutely delighted to market this extremely rare opportunity. Properties in this area don't come up for sale often, and its easy to see why!! Surrounded by stunning fields and countryside this really is the perfect rural setting.

Only a ten minute drive from Congleton Town Centre you are not far from plenty of shops, restaurants and local amenities. There are also some fantastic walks close by with the Bosley Cloud a stones throw away.

Internally this property is a Tardis with multiple reception rooms and bedrooms. You enter the property via a porch with fitted storage cupboard, from here is the inner hallway leading to the snug, kitchen/diner, living room with open fire, bedroom four and bathroom. Accessed through the living room are two further double bedrooms and stairs to the first floor master suite with WC and large storage area.

Externally the property sits on a fabulous plot, accessed via gates to the front. Behind the gates is a large driveway providing ample off road parking, a garage with workshop and further storage and a separate large outbuilding currently used as a store room. As well as all of this is additional land to the side ideal to be used as a garden area.

This is not one to miss, early viewing is highly recommended!
