STEPHENSON BROWNE

This stunning semi-detached home represents a fine example of a period property from its era, boasting an abundance of original features and well planned, spacious accommodation you would expect from a property of this age. Having been sympathetically extended, updated and improved throughout, this really is an opportunity not to be missed and once you see the fabulous entertaining space that the sellers have created, we are convinced that this home won't be on the market for long!

Accompanying the property are a number of notable features, some of which include: feature stained bay window to the front, a full gas central heating system, sitting room with feature fireplace and marble hearth, the living room is larger than you would expect which flows effortlessly to the modern, open plan Dining Kitchen complete with a range of high gloss units, built in appliances and French doors leading to the rear garden, this particular area is perfect for those who like to be the host! There is also a downstairs WC. Upstairs, the first floor has three generous bedrooms, the master being an exceptional size, with dressing area and ensuite, and the family bathroom. The loft has also been converted to create a further room, ideal to be used as a fourth bedroom.

Externally, the property benefits from a gated entrance, with large paved driveway providing off road parking for multiple vehicles. To the rear of the property is an extremely large garden, with multiple Indian stone patio areas and the rest laid to lawn, with hedged borders. This is the perfect garden for children to play/hosting summer BBQ's.

Early internal inspection is highly advised to fully appreciate the property's true size, convenient position and many original features this wonderful family home has to offer.
