Overview

A well located two bedroom bungalow sat within the pretty, mature and well maintained gardens of Kenwith Castle. Enjoy these extensive picturesque surroundings and beautiful 30 acre gardens but without lifting a finger.

The bungalow itself comprises of two spacious bedrooms, the principal bedroom has a ensuite bath room, both are good size double proportion bedrooms. There is a well equipped wet room with white suite. Plenty of built-in storage including the very handy buggy room.

The lounge is a particularly good size which flows to the kitchen which is situated at the rear of the bungalow, this creates a rather nice flow to the property. The kitchen has double doors that lead onto the rear garden and immediate patio perfect for your morning coffee or alfresco dining. The kitchen itself has a range of built-in storage and integral appliances which have recently been tested by the current owners.

The rear garden is very low maintenance and fully enclosed perfect for visiting grandchildren or pets. Backing onto Woodlands it is a haven for wildlife, from the kitchen you can sit and watch the world go by.

The property is well situated within the pretty gardens of Kenwith Castle which is very accessible from the A39. The castle offers many handy amenities. Westward Ho is only moments away with a range of shops, restaurants, seaside eateries, superstores, church and a large expensive sandy beach perfect for those that want a brisk morning walk or Sunday stroll.

Outside

The castle itself is a short walk from the property. The residents' association is an active community with lakeside functions and optional group gatherings and coffee mornings. The castle grounds are home to many residents some with wings, beaks and feathers, and is pretty and interesting for visitors of all ages.

The property benefits from mains electricity (EICR 2021) and a regularly serviced gas boiler along with mains water and fibre broadband. There is a service charge of £259.40 per month, reviewed annually in June of each year. More about this can be seen in the Care South management pack.

Ground rent is £200 per year. Tenure is leasehold – 125 years which started 6th of March 2009.
