A Beautiful Period Home With Extensive Grounds Extending to 3 Acres

West Fordlands Heywood Road, Northam, Bideford, Devon, EX39 3QA

Set within an exclusive location on the edge of this popular village and commanding fine, far-reaching views onto rolling countryside, West Fordlands is an impressive period residence, close to the coast. Forming part of a former Country Estate, originally thought to date back to c.1860 and now a Heritage Asset, the property boasts spacious accommodation with an abundance of attractive character features, all enjoying a sunny South-facing aspect. Also occupying private grounds of approximately 3 acres, the property enjoys formal gardens, a mature woodland/copse and a separate paddock (2.59 acres), along with a "Coach House" with further potential, subject to planning.

Offering the perfect balance of Coast and Country, the property is ideal for those seeking a wonderful lifestyle home or equestrian opportunity with tremendous potential within easy reach of the North Devon coastline.

Northam is a popular village providing a good range of facilities and being well located for easy access to Bideford and a number of coastal resorts with Appledore, Westward Ho! and Instow all found nearby. Appledore offers a rich maritime history with narrow streets adorned by fisherman's cottages, whilst Westward Ho! boasts a glorious sandy, blue-flag beach. Instow, just across the River Torridge, provides a number of award-winning restaurants and a sandy beach along the estuary, popular with families and dog walkers alike.

The port town of Bideford provides a number of independent shops and stores, popular art galleries, cafes and bistro's and a traditional pannier market. From Bideford, there is also quick access to the Tarka Trail, popular among runners and cyclists, along with good transport links to Barnstaple, the regional centre, which provides High Street shopping, a rail link to Exeter and a convenient route to Tiverton and the M5 motorway via the North Devon Link Road

DETAILS

Located at the top of a private lane shared with only a handful of neighbours, West Fordlands is then approached by a long sweeping driveway to a private parking area.

Upon entering the property, the feeling of light and space is immediately evident and is enhanced by the tall ceilings and large sash windows. Inviting you into the home, the ground floor accommodation briefly comprises a recently-fitted kitchen/breakfast room, large sitting room, formal dining room and a truly impressive garden room/conservatory that overlooks the gardens, taking in the fine views. In addition, there is an adaptable study/home office, ground floor bathroom and utility room.

Stairs rising to the first floor open to a generous landing, leading to spacious master bedroom with curved feature windows, 3 further double bedrooms (one ensuite), the family bathroom and a separate shower room.

There is also a large cellar, currently offering excellent storage, which could be converted as part of the existing accommodation or for a dependant relative, subject to the necessary consents.

Outside, the property enjoys extensive grounds at the front of the home with a mature formal garden and woodland. The grounds then extend to a separate paddock, 2.59 acres, which could be planted as a wild or market garden or offer space for equestrian or dog training facilities. At the rear of the property is a small cobbled courtyard and separate "Coach House" which also offers further potential to convert for a dependant relative or as a boutique holiday let, subject to planning.

In all, this beautiful period home offers a wonderful opportunity with tremendous potential and is not to be missed.
