A Stunning Georgian Family Home Within A Handy Location

TorrIDGE House 4 Buttgarden Street, Bideford, EX39 2AU

TorrIDGE House offers the very best combination of original Georgian features with modern day, living necessities. With gorgeous period style and detail throughout the house offers plenty of space for a growing family.

Once you step inside, you are greeted with a large reception hall which provides access to the ground floor. Underfoot it's beautifully tiled with tall ceilings and original plasterwork. The lounge is a particularly good size with plenty of space for seating the whole family, tall ceilings along with feature mouldings and a central fire place that creates a lovely focal point to the room.

The dining room is also a good size reception room for more formal dining occasions perfect for hosting family and friends. The kitchen breakfast room is a particularly good size room with a range of bespoke built-in storage cupboards, plenty of preparation space and integral appliances.

The kitchen creates a social and entertaining hub of the house, there is a breakfast bar for occasional eating. For those of you keen home cooks there is also a rather nice view of Bideford and the estuary enjoyed from the kitchen sink.

Also on the ground floor, there is a large laundry room with plenty of storage space along with a ground floor WC and hand wash basin. There is a handy sunroom with plenty of storage and access to the underground basement, which is currently used as a gym!

On the first floor, there is choice of three bedrooms and the family bathroom, all of which are very good portions. The principal bedroom is a fabulous size with a Georgian bay window overlooking the estuary and beyond.

The second and third bedroom on this floor are very good sizes eliminating that age old Childs argument over who gets the largest bedroom. The family bathroom is large with a four piece suite, separate shower, roll top bath and wash basin all with in-keeping period detail.

DETAILS

On the top floor, there is a further choice of three extra bedrooms which are again all good sizes. The bedrooms to each gable have fantastic views across the estuary and beyond. One used at the moment for a study, perfect for those of you looking to work from home.

Nestled along the banks of the River Torridge, Bideford has a timeless charm that captivates visitors to explore its historic streets and riverside beauty. With a rich maritime heritage dating back centuries, this little town has long been a bustling hub markets, shops and trading. Quaint cottages and elegant Georgian buildings (like Torridge House) line the winding streets, offering glimpses into Bideford's storied past as a thriving port town.

At the heart of Bideford lies its bustling quayside, where colorful fishing boats bob gently on the water. Here, visitors can stroll along the quay with a variety of shops, restaurants and cafes.

The historic Pannier Market, housed in a striking Victorian building, invites exploration with its array of stalls selling everything from fresh produce to locally crafted goods. Nearby, the Burton Art Gallery and Museum showcases the town's maritime history through a fascinating exhibits.

The Tarka Trail, a scenic walking and cycling route, winds its way through the town, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding countryside. Nature lovers can venture further afield to explore the rugged coastline, sandy beaches, and rolling hills.

Bideford offers a variety of facilities including churches, national and local retailers along with excellent superstores, schooling and recreational provisions.
