Here are Phillips Smith & Dunn WE OFFER FLEXIBLE VIEWING TIME SLOTS TO SUIT YOU! - Contact the Bideford team for more information and to arrange your appointment. YOU COULD SEE THIS PROPERTY TODAY.

Stepping foot inside the property through the original Oak studded and chamfered door you have an entrance hall to two reception rooms.

To the left is the lounge, a snug room with wood burner which creates an excellent focal point to the room. A snug and cosy space, perfect for those long winters evenings. On the right is the dining room with further wood burner with original priest hole*.

A domed ceiling to the kitchen makes a light, airy and open plan living space which incorporates modern day living. The kitchen/breakfast room is an excellent social and entertaining area perfect for hosting family and friends.

Whilst upstairs you have a choice of 3 bedrooms and the modernised family bathroom suite. All bedrooms are well proportioned, the principal bedroom being an exceptionally good size.

DETAILS

Offering more than first meets the eye...

*The property, previously known as 'Cranmer's Cupboard', rumour in local folklore has it the priest-hole was used by Thomas Cranmer during the Reformation. The priest hole offered Cranmer a concealed space to safely hide when Protestants were being persecuted. The Protestant Reformation was a religious reform movement that swept through Europe in the 1500's.

Outside is where this property really excels - For those looking for space, storage and options there are two large storage sheds offer excellent potential for a plethora of uses. The garden is well stocked and long established with beautiful trees, shrubs and borders. A pretty and vibrant climbing wisteria gives charm to the front elevation along with some long lasting roses give a true sense of romanticism.

We hugely recommend an internal visit of this property and without delay to avoid disappointment contact Phillips Smith & Dunn, Bideford branch.
