THE PROPERTY

Description

This charming two-bedroom mid-terrace home was formerly a popular Airbnb destination. Once in, you are greeted by an entrance hall that also serves as a convenient boot room and leads to a separate dining room and a separate cosy sitting room with a mounted TV and an inviting feature fireplace. The modern, spacious kitchen provides space for an additional breakfast table, as well as a cooker, hob, washer and dryer, dishwasher, fridge freezer, and plenty of storage and counter space. There is also a utility room with rear access to the garden and a large pantry store, as well as a completely renovated downstairs bathroom.

Upstairs are two double bedrooms with fabulous views over the estate, both with inbuilt wardrobes, the master bedroom also benefits from an en-suite shower room.

Outside

There is parking for up to two cars, and there is a spacious rear garden and patio. Additionally, there is a substantial storage unit within the estate's outbuildings.

Location

This cottage is situated on Eashing Lane and is located approximately 1.6 miles away from Godalming mainline train station. Godalming is a picturesque town and provides excellent shopping, restaurants, public houses and schools. Guildford is about 9 miles to the north and provides further extensive amenities, including restaurants, theatre and recreational facilities. Eashing Lane provides quick and easy access to both Godalming and the A3.
