General Description

Alexanders of Melton Mowbray are delighted to offer to the market this individual detached home enjoying a rural location just outside the well serviced village of Scalford and allowing easy access to Nottingham, Leicester, Loughborough, and Melton Mowbray.

The property presents itself for improvement and potential further extension/development (STPP) offering significant potential especially for equestrian enthusiasts and or those who keep livestock.

Offering spacious, balanced living accommodation with a wealth of features and offering excellent natural light the property enjoys a truly private position approached via a private, gated, sweeping driveway.

The driveway provides off road parking for several vehicles flanked by enclosed gardens and with a detached double garage. A further gate gives access into the adjoining paddock land which is regular and level and is enclosed all sides by either established hawthorn hedging or post and rail. There is a small block of disused timber stabling and a substantial modern storage barn to the Northern boundary.

Accommodation Summary
