General Description

An attractive four-bedroom cottage dating back to the 1800's, nestled within the heart of this popular well serviced village.

This property will require some level of modernisation over time but comes with lots of character, two reception rooms, a kitchen/dining room, utility and cloakroom.

Outside there is a large driveway with a large, detached garage with an attractive area of garden to the front. More garden could be created by altering the garage to suit.

Location

Wymeswold is a well serviced village with two public houses, The Three Crowns and The Windmill Inn as well as a fine dining restaurant, The Hammer & Pincers.

There is also a primary school, convenience store, village hall and pharmacy as well as the local Church. The village has an amazing community within a picturesque semi-rural setting.
