In summary, this stunning property on Eastwell Road is a rare find, combining historical significance with modern living. It presents an exceptional opportunity for anyone seeking a spacious and characterful home in the heart of the English countryside.

The Main House

Cranyke Farmhouse is located on the outskirts of the much desired village of Scalford, thought to date back to the Georgian period and possibly 17th century in parts. Over the past 10 years the property has undergone a full renovation combining modern conveniences whilst restoring an abundance of rural charm and character.

This exceptional residence is set behind electrically operated gates shared with the neighbouring property, which in turn leads into a second set of gates providing ample parking. The plot extends to just over a third of an acre to include outstanding southeast-facing formal gardens with open views beyond. A large seating terrace expands the rear of the property, creating a superb entertainment space positioned off the main living areas. Beyond the terrace is a large lawned area, a detached annexe benefiting from its own private garden and seating area.

The Accommodation

The house oozes quality throughout its generous 4,000 square feet of living accommodation, the interior is nothing short of impressive with features to include parquet flooring, a brick inglenook fireplace, chequered tiling, integral pantry cupboards and a separate walk-in pantry area, cream Aga cooker, multi-fuel Aga log burner, unique wooden panelled recessed shelving, contemporary shower, vanity unit and modern wc with a stunning freestanding slipper roll-top bath.

In brief, to the ground floor expect to find; Welcoming entrance hall, four bright spacious reception rooms, large kitchen living room, pantry, wc, laundry room, utility room and plant room all to the ground floor. On the first floor, are three bedrooms and the family bathroom accessed via the original staircase, a further two bedrooms and en suite are accessed via a second staircase which is currently being utilised as a guest suite with large bedroom, dressing room and en suite. The second floor is the main bedroom, walk in wardrobe and en suite bathroom.

"The Nest"
