A place to suit every lifestyle

The South Yorkshire town of Maltby is a former mining town, located about 8 miles east of Rotherham town centre, offering many leisure activities for the whole family.

Whether you love hiking or cycling, Maltby is full of hidden gems waiting to be explored and visited. Lying a couple of miles south-east, Sandbeck Park is a Neo-Palladian country estate dating back to the 17th century and is the seat of the Earl of Scarbrough since the 18th century.

Sandbeck Park lies near the now ruined Roche Abbey, founded in 1147 by Cistercian monks. The grounds contain a large wood once known as Roche Wood that is now called King's Wood. Sandbeck Park and Roche Abbey have gardens, pleasure grounds, orchards and a landscape park with two lakes to enjoy all year round.

Offering the best of both worlds, Lambcote Meadows benefits from a picturesque location whilst only 8 miles from the centre of Rotherham and just 2.5 miles from the M18, which provides links to Doncaster, Chesterfield and the M1. The M1 provides easy access to the city of Sheffield and its many opportunities, be it employment or shopping. The town of Maltby itself neighbours villages such as Bramley, Wickersley and Tickhill, which all have an extensive range of local amenities. Additionally, there are a number of primary and secondary schools close by for families.
