Originally built in the 1930s, the current owners have fully renovated and extended this four-bedroom Walthamstow Village property to create a luxurious and stunning home. Thoughtful design touches, like herringbone slate flooring, bakelite door handles, and period art deco lighting combine with a carefully selected colour palette and statement wallpaper to celebrate the property's origins. Fully rewired, replumbed, and refitted with thermally efficient windows and wrap-around external insulation, function meets form throughout.
