A beautifully presented flat minutes away from St James Street and Walthamstow Central.

Set on the second floor of this contemporary development is this immaculately finished one-bedroom flat. The open plan living area is the main social hub of the home, granting you views over the wonderfully maintained and peaceful communal gardens. The kitchen has been smartly finished with gloss cabinets and grey metro tiles. The main bedroom is perfectly sized with a large window, as well as plenty of space for storage, whilst the luxury family bathroom is conveniently modernised with shower over bath. The communal gardens are beautifully maintained creating the perfect space to sit back and relax with friends. Overall, this is a brilliantly modern yet convenient flat with plenty of storage including a utility/storage room which is super handy, all that's left for you to do now is add your own personal touch with your own furnishing to really make this flat feel like home and you're ready to go.
