Offers in excess of £600,000

A charming Victorian home with great potential on a quiet residential street.

This two-bedroom mid-terrace house on Albany Road is full of character and offers a fantastic opportunity for buyers looking to create their ideal home. Set across two floors, the property retains many original features, including fireplaces in both reception rooms, giving it plenty of period charm.

While some aspects of the home could benefit from updating, it's been well cared for and offers excellent scope to modernise and add value. There's potential to extend to the rear and into the loft (subject to planning), making this an exciting prospect for those looking for a project.

The ground floor includes two reception rooms and a separate galley style kitchen, along with a useful cellar. Upstairs you'll find two well sized bedrooms and a family bathroom. Outside, the private rear garden offers a good amount of space to relax or entertain with a mix of lawn and patio.
