A breathtaking two-bedroom split-level flat that has undergone a complete top-to-bottom renovation. Situated in a popular residential street just a short stroll from Wood Street, this flat boasts an array of desirable features that are sure to captivate your senses.

Upon entering, you will immediately notice the meticulous attention to detail in the design and craftsmanship. The open-plan kitchen and living area to the front has an abundance of natural light, with large wooden sash windows and a wood burner creating a wonderfully inviting atmosphere. The kitchen has been fitted with high-quality quartz worktops, a gas hob and modern integrated appliances with plenty of storage and space to entertain guests.

As you explore the two spacious double bedrooms, you will appreciate the plush carpets that offer a comfortable and luxurious space to kick back and relax in. The larger of the two bedrooms sits in the expertly converted loft complete with a Juliette balcony, eaves storage and its very own en suite shower room for added convenience. The main family bathroom is equally as impressive, adorned with beautiful wall and floor tiles and an impressive free standing bathtub that exudes a sense of luxury and sophistication.
