35 High Street, Bruton, BA10 0AH

With the rarity of freehold tenure and the convenience of being in Council Tax Band D, this residence is a testament to historic elegance.

Immaculately renovated in 2016, this three-story abode showcases a harmonious blend of original features and contemporary elements. Vaulted ceilings, exposed brickwork, and beams coalesce with flagstone floors, painted floorboards, and original fireplaces, creating a tapestry of character that unfolds across each floor.

Accessed through a shared covered walkway from High Street, the ground floor welcomes you to an inviting kitchen/dining area, resplendent with cream shaker-style units, varnished wooden worktops, and a stainless-steel gas range cooker and is illuminated by Velux skylights. Off the kitchen there is a large living room space with a wood burner to add warmth and ambience.

Ascending to the first floor reveals two large double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and a thoughtfully designed study area. The bathroom, a sanctuary of relaxation, features a freestanding copper roll-top bath, wet room-style shower, and double washbasins.

The second floor unveils the master bedroom, complete with an en-suite bathroom and loft storage. The en-suite boasts a freestanding roll-top bath, a glass wall and door, offering a serene retreat.

Outside, an enclosed low-maintenance rear garden provides a private oasis complemented by the convenience of one allocated parking space.

Additional Note: This property is available for sale individually or together with its adjoining 3-bedroom property, currently on the market for £450,000.
