Districts London are proud to present this stunning Chain Free two-bedroom property located near Wimbledon central, which boasts ample natural light. The property is split over two levels and comprises of two double bedrooms, bathroom, and modern kitchen with a kitchen island and open-plan reception room. Furthermore, the reception room opens up onto your very own south facing landscaped garden comprising of resin bound paving and a modern garden office, which doubles as an extra TV room or entertainment area. The garden area has had no expense spared and requires very little maintenance.

This property benefits from excellent transport connections, conveniently situated close to Wimbledon Town Centre and the mainline station (offering national rail and district line tube). Additionally, you are moments away from South Wimbledon Station (Northern Line) and the Tram line (Merton Park Tram Stop). It has outstanding schools in the local catchment area as well as two recreational grounds in close proximity (Abbey Recreation Grounds and Dundonald Recreation Grounds) and further benefits from rear access via either Kirkley or Shelton Road. Last but not least, permit parking is available for more than one vehicle. It is worth noting that your buildings insurance is already covered in your service charge payment.
