

The Auld Elms, Fenwick Park

Hawick, TD9 9PA

Offers Over £475,000

This spectacular Georgian property arranged over three floors exudes elegance and timeless charm. It showcases retained architectural features such as intricate cornicing, deep skirting's, glorious bay windows and impressively high ceilings to name a few - all contributing to its historic character and sophisticated ambience. Complete with wrap around landscaped garden grounds allowing fine views over the town and countryside beyond, The Auld Elms is a wonderful home for a family and those looking to be centrally positioned for a range of nearby amenities and facilities.

THE AULD ELMS

With a choice of public space and bedrooms on offer, this impressive property provides enviable space for family, entertaining guests and work or hobby areas.

With the private drive leading off Fenwick Park, the beautifully kept grounds wrap around the property; landscaped and terraced in sections to provide space for a variety of year round needs, as well as practical requirements such as ample parking and external storage.

The ground floor accommodation feel bright with an elegant country décor and contemporary upgrades. Adaptability throughout afforded by the four main public areas, modern family kitchen and useful utility and cloakroom.

Upstairs, the principal bedrooms open on the first floor and are generous in their proportions; with super elevated views, a choice of two shower rooms, and a dressing room opening directly from the master. The upper level extends to three further double bedrooms, lending themselves equally well as work space.

Unquestionably a stunning home and enviable find for any buyer in search of a balance between country living with easy access to amenities, this immaculately presented period home is timeless in its finish.
