Gartcosh is a conveniently placed commuter village located just off the A73 motorway between Cumbernauld and Uddingston. The village in recent years has seen great investment from house builders and a new community has been born. The old village, Main Street, is home to a licensed shop, hairdressers, pharmacy and a restaurant/takeaway, in addition to Gartcosh Primary School, the children's nursery and the local community centre. Everything you need is just a stone's throw away, making every-day living a breeze.
