

Main Street, Burrough on the Hill
Offers Over £840,000

An impressive five bedroomed detached home sitting on a plot of c. 0.35 acre with elevated views across its own garden and Leicestershire countryside. Offering seven individual stables with potential for equine use or integration into the accommodation of the home, subject to planning permission.

Peake House is not listed and provides an extensive internal floorplan of c. 2,500 square feet, retaining an abundance of original features. The property is situated on a deceptive plot within the heart of Burrough-on-the-Hill. Access to the property is provided via secure and modern front gates with intercom.

The Cotswold farmhouse kitchen/breakfast room is of a generous size and offers room for a sizeable dining table, excellent proportions for entertaining and culinary endeavours. The kitchen is well equipped with an oil-fired aga, separate induction hob and electric oven, integrated dishwasher and ceramic sink.

There is a rear lobby off of which a downstairs shower room is accessed and a snug/playroom. This space offers great potential for self-contained accommodation for visitors or income generation. Further to the ground floor the dual aspect living room benefits from French doors to the rear garden and a multi-fuel burner set within a brick-exposed fireplace, there is a dining room and stairs to a sizeable wine cellar.

The first floor accommodation offers a floorplan of c. 1,100 square feet, to include five bedrooms, three of which are generously sized double rooms. Bedroom one offers a double aspect and velux window with views over the garden and fields beyond, and an en-suite shower room. There is a fantastic family bathroom with free-standing double-ended bath and separate double shower cubicle.

The current vendors love their home and its great accommodation dimensions for all the family, lovely views and excellent outside space. Some of their most recent upgrades include a modern gas-fired boiler within the last year, and new windows to the hallway and dining room.

Must be viewed to be truly appreciated.
