I love how this charming c.1850 home in Mid Holmwood beautifully blends period character with modern living, especially the stunning kitchen/diner with handmade cabinetry and crittal-style doors, the cozy inglenook fireplace, and the peaceful gardens that overlook the Surrey Hills AONB.

Situated in the idyllic area of Mid Holmwood, this delightful house, built in c.1850, offers a perfect blend of period character and modern living. With its inviting façade and scenic setting, this property is sure to capture your heart.

Upon entering, you are greeted by two spacious reception rooms, featuring an elegant inglenook fireplace that creates a warm and welcoming atmosphere and an acoustically dampened media space. These versatile spaces are perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet family evenings. The true highlight of this home is the expansive kitchen/diner, which boasts stunning handmade cabinetry, a central island, and beautiful crittal style doors that seamlessly connect the indoor space to the outdoor gardens.
