Representing a splendid example of a period terraced home measuring approximately 60SQM/649SQFT, the property provides accommodation over two levels. The current owners of the property have significantly and thoughtfully improved it throughout their ownership and it is now in 'turn key' condition, ready for the next home owner.

To the ground floor, the property comprises of a generous living and dining area which measures 19ft in length, complemented by a Charnwood wood burning stove with antique overmantle mirror, and a reclaimed period door leading directly into the kitchen. The shaker style kitchen provides beautiful splash back tiles, tiled flooring, and a large solid oak worktop which continues across to provide a convenient breakfast bar area. The kitchen appliances are included in the sale.

To the first floor are two bedrooms and an attractive bathroom suite which has a panelled bath with a mixer tap, a separate walk-in shower, low-level WC, and a pedestal sink.

Externally the property has a delightful private courtyard garden, accessed through solid hardwood door off the kitchen, which is a perfect location for alfresco dining in the summer months. A short stroll from the property is a separate fully enclosed garden which is laid predominantly to lawn with a patio and path, to the rear of the garden is a timber constructed summer house.
