Constructed in the early 1900's, this terraced home measures 725 Sqft/67 Sqm and provides accommodation across two floors. To the ground floor are two reception rooms which have been opened to create a light and airy space thanks largely to its double aspect windows to the front and rear. Completing the ground floor is a galley kitchen with storage at both eye level and base level and an adjoining bathroom. To the first floor are two double bedrooms.

Externally – To the front, the property has a small herbaceous garden and paved pathway leading up to the front door. The rear garden is perfect for those with green fingers. Off the kitchen is a raised patio area and large flower bed with a variety of flowers, shrubs and a mature tree. Stepping down to the lawn is a variety of well stocked borders which in turn lead toward a further gravel laid seating area. To the very rear of the garden is a gravel laid potting area and a timber constructed shed on a concrete laid base.

Location

Histon is widely acknowledged as being one of the most sought-after villages north of Cambridge. Its particularly convenient location just 3 miles from Cambridge city centre adds to its popularity and communications are first class, the A14 and M11 being within a few minutes' drive. Histon is served by Cambridgeshire County Council's Guided Busway with an estimated journey time to the Science Park of approximately 3 minutes and is a 10-minute cycle. It is also conveniently located for Cambridge North railway station.

The village boasts many local facilities including excellent schooling for all ages from pre-school to sixth form, including the well regarded Impington Village College. Good local shopping is available in the village and there is a regular bus service to Cambridge. Girton Golf Club is also within a few minutes' drive.
