Constructed in the late 1990's this detached home was later extended and provides generous accommodation measuring 1445.6 Sqft/134.3 Sqm. To the ground floor the property has a spacious entrance hall with WC adjoining and wrap around stairs leading up to the first floor. The property has three reception rooms, including a spacious living room opening onto the rear garden, a study with views across the allotments to the front and a large formal dining room which the current owner considered opening to create a large open plan kitchen/dining area. Completing the ground floor is a kitchen with storage at both eye/base level and a separate utility room with its own access to the side of the property. To the first floor are four large bedrooms and two bathrooms which includes an en-suite shower room off the master bedroom with a steam facility within the shower.

Externally – to the side of the property is a block paved driveway accessible along a private road off the High Street and benefits from space for two vehicles. The rear garden of the property has a large patio area accessible off the study and the living room. Above the patio is a pergola as well a hot tub to the side of the patio. The remainder of the garden is laid to lawn with a variety of flowers and shrubs located along the border.

Location

Lode is a popular village situated just off the B1102 conveniently located for Cambridge and the A14. The village has a post office/village store and a particular feature of the village is the proximity to open countryside and its relationship with Anglesey Abbey, a nearby National Trust property. The village at Bottisham has excellent facilities including primary school, secondary school, swimming pool and gym with public access and a health centre.
