Originally constructed in 1912 the property was then extended to the rear and into the loft in 1973 and 1986 to provide spacious accommodation measuring 1370.6 Sqft/127.3 Sqm. to the ground floor the property comprises of two reception rooms, a kitchen breakfast room and a separate utility room off the kitchen. To the first floor are two generous bedrooms and two bathrooms which include a master bedroom suite with fitted wardrobes and an en-suite shower room. To the second floor in the loft conversion is a room used currently as a study and third bedroom which also benefits from an en-suite shower room. To the second floor are five Velux windows which were all recently replaced and all triple glazed.

Externally – the property has a small walled garden to the front with gated access and pathway leading to the front door. To the side of the property is a block paved driveway with space for two vehicles. Off the driveway is a detached brick-built garage under a pitch tiled roof. The rear garden of the property is fully enclosed, laid predominantly to lawn and with a block paved patio area. Off the rear of the garage is a brick-built garden room measuring 90.1 Sqft/9.8 Sqm ideal for working from home. The garden room benefits from both power and lighting, a uPVC double glazed window and French doors opening onto the patio within the rear garden.

Location

Histon is widely acknowledged as being one of the most sought-after villages north of Cambridge. Its particularly convenient location just 3 miles from Cambridge city centre adds to its popularity and communications are first class, the A14 and M11 being within a few minutes' drive. Histon is served by Cambridgeshire County Council's Guided Busway with an estimated journey time to the Science Park of approximately 3 minutes and is a 10-minute cycle. It is also conveniently located for Cambridge North railway station.

The village boasts many local facilities including excellent schooling for all ages from pre-school to sixth form, including the well regarded Impington Village College. Good local shopping is available in the village and there is a regular bus service to Cambridge. Girton Golf Club is also within a few minutes' drive.
