COMPTON PARK HOUSE, MANNAMEAD RD, PL3 4SZ

THE PROPERTY

Compton Park House comprises an impressive detached late victorian built (1876) villa style double fronted home with generously proportioned accommodation laid out over four storeys. Flexible and adaptable accommodation with up to ten bedrooms if desired. At present, laid out with a three bedroom self contained lower ground floor apartment with the family home above. Set on a generous size plot with mature wrap around walled gardens, excellent parking including a wide parking apron to the front and a further private drive to the side with double garage behind.

The property has been owned for over 27 years by the current owners who have extensively upgraded, improved and refurbished the property to its present good standard. Gas fired central heating with three boilers, the high capacity Clyde Go providing heating for the house, Rinnai Continuum boiler providing domestic hot water for the main house and a Gloworm Flexicom CX boiler providing hot water for the self contained flat. Having the benefit of uPVC double glazing, variously installed between 2005 and 2012. With high levels of insulation in the lower ground floor flat and within the roof structure which is boarded for storage with loft ladder.

A home that might be suited to multi generational occupation or for letting part out if desired.

LOCATION

Occupying a convenient and prominent position at the junction of Compton Park Road and Mannamead Road, next to Emmanuel Church and with an excellent variety of other local services found close by in Mannamead and Hartley. The property is set back from the road, relatively private with well established boundaries, trees and prolific foliage. A good range of facilities are found within walking distance, such as good state and public schools, bus stops, convenience stores and major supermarkets. Mutley Plain is about half a mile away and the city centre, one mile to the south and close by connections to major routes in other directions.
