THE PROPERTY

Spacious and well-presented home arranged over 4-storeys. Grade II listed semi-detached Victorian villa thought to have been built c1850. Generously proportioned, flexible adaptable accommodation which is light and airy and retaining an attractive variety of original and characterful period features complemented by a host of modern conveniences including quality double-glazing, gas-fired central heating with a new Worcester boiler and various other features.

The accommodation comprises an entrance porch, spacious reception hall, generous-sized double-length living room with front bay window incorporating seating and a fireplace with marble surround and ornate fireback with a gas fire with a re-lined flue, built-in storage around the fireplace and 2 windows with working shutters to the rear elevation, rear lobby with doors opening to the rear garden and a useful downstairs wc on the ground floor level.

On the lower ground floor level there is a good-sized hall, a spacious utility room with various storage facilities off including a wine cellar, a large open-plan fitted integrated kitchen with a breakfast bar and incorporating a Belfast-style sink, granite work tops, a Bosch dishwasher, integrated Siemens 5-ring gas hob with an extractor hood above and Bosch oven and microwave and a wide arch opening connects to the spacious, impressive dining room with a multi-fuel stove which has had a re-lined flue.

On the first floor level a landing provides access to the large master bedroom with integrated storage facilities, a walk-through dressing room with further storage and an ensuite bathroom. The ensuite bathroom comprises a corner bath, separate shower, vanity wash hand basins and wc. There is a further generous double-sized bedroom and a separate family bathroom.

Stairs rise to the second floor where the spacious top floor landing provides access to further good-sized bedrooms and shower room/wc.

The property has excellent parking facilities on the private drive with ample space for turning and parking various vehicles. From drive there is access to the generous-sized double garage, which has been subdivided and featuring a large gym to the rear, which equally could be used as a workshop. Alternatively, the partition wall could be removed and opened up to provide one large double garage again. Adjacent to the garage is a covered area with a hot tub and to the rear, there is a delightful enclosed large wrap-around garden enjoying a high degree of privacy with wall boundaries and well-established hedges. The garden is largely laid to lawn and there are seating areas, an outdoor swimming pool, plant room and garden shed.
