LOCATION

Found within this prime, popular, residential area of Mannamead, the property itself on the southerly side. The position convenient for access into the city & close by connection to major routes in other directions.

ACCOMMODATION

Well proportioned 1930s semi-detached house which contains a variety of period & original features. A door opens from the entrance porch into the spacious reception hall with useful under-stairs storage cupboards. Doors into the main accommodation. A generous-sized front set lounge, fireplace & storage cupboard, spacious modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room, integrated appliances including a Neff double oven/grill, Neff five ring variable sized gas hob, breakfast bar & a central island unit incorporating a contemporary belfast-style sink, space & plumbing under for a dishwasher. French doors to the rear garden and a wide archway into the dining room with window overlooking the rear. Access to an under-stairs storage cupboard which potentially might provide space for a downstairs cloakroom. A useful utility room which houses the Worcester gas fired boiler servicing the central heating & domestic hot water.

At first floor level a landing with window to the side giving access to 3 bedrooms, 2 being generous-sized doubles, a modern fitted bathroom & separate wc.

The property stands on a rectangular shaped wide plot that has off-street parking on the private drive which gives access to the good-sized garage set to the side. A front garden, wide area to the side which provides potential space perhaps for extension of the property or creation of additional parking/garaging. To the rear a good-sized enclosed south-westerly level garden laid to lawn & patio, on one side stands the substantial annexe, 26ft x 14ft overall & this providing self-contained accommodation with living room, annexe bedroom & shower room/wc. The annexe having the benefit of relevant approval.
